

I was out of town for a few days. When I returned home my family said that a man from the F.B.I. named Tony Sorenson had called. My Aunt answered the phone. Mr. Sorenson asked for me, then when my Aunt told him I wasn't home, he asked if she knew where I was and when would I be home. She said she didn't know. Mr. Sorenson then asked "Is she with Dave Larson?" Then Mr. Sorenson stated that he was from the F.B.I. in the Crime Division Dept. and is investigating Mr. Larson and that he really needs to speak with me. My Aunt didn't have any information for Mr. Sorenson. Tony Sorenson was very persistent and just kept asking more questions regarding myself and Dave Larson. Then Mr. Sorenson ended his phone call with "Brandi gets home tell her to call Tony Sorenson at the F.B.I." After that call my family was led to believe that I was under investigation or had committed a crime of some sort, and were all very worried for a few days until my daughter and I returned home from out of town. I was not worried that Mr. Sorenson wanted to talk to me because I knew I hadn't done anything wrong. I did go to Bakersfield with Dave Larson when he met with Tony Sorenson in person before, so I knew that's how he knew who I was. So I assumed the reason he needed to speak with me involved Dave. I did think it was weird how he found out my last name, and then called my home? So the next day, which was January 29th 2007, I called Mr. Sorenson. I explained I had gotten a message to call him. First question he asked is if I was still with Dave Larson. I said "What do you mean, still with?" I wasn't sure if he wanted to know if we were still dating as boyfriend/girlfriend, or if he was actually with me at that moment when we were talking. He then changed his question asking if Dave and I still talk or see each other, and how often. I was careful of what I told him because I wasn't sure what he needed this information for, but I did not lie. I said Dave and me talk to each other on the phone every now and then. He then said "Dave has a restraining order you though? Right?" I said "Restraining Order? That was like a year ago or more? The case was dismissed!" Then he asked me what I thought about the things that Dave says has happened and is going on, if I think its all true or if he was just crazy. I told him that Dave is a very private kind of person. I told Mr. Sorenson that I wasn't sure what information was all given to Mr. Sorenson from Dave or about Dave and that I didn't know how to answer that question. Then he asked me if Dave is on drugs! I told him No, not to my knowledge, and then I asked him why he thought that, and how did he know about the Restraining Order that was over a year ago, and why did he need to know the status of my relationship with Dave Larson? Then he said "If I were you, I'd be careful around Mr. Larson, he seems unstable and is likely to harm or hurt someone in some way. Thank you for calling me back, talk to you later." Then he hung up.
